COURSE DESCRIPTION

Welcome to English One! Throughout the course of the school year, we will be engaging with critical reading & writing skills as well as exploring a wide variety of literature. Students will be reading, writing, and communicating on a daily basis. Thus, it is our core objective to develop readers, writers, and lifelong learners who can be successful at the high school level and beyond. Concepts and skills covered in this course are standards based. Students will specifically cover the following concepts:

- Form: historical background of literature, theme, tone, character development, and other elements of literature.
- Language: the way the words work together on the page.
- Fluency: structure and creativity in writing.

VIRTUAL CLASSROOM EXPECTATIONS

1. Treat others with respect at all times.
  2. Attend class prepared & on time.
  3. Self-advocate: ask questions & reach out to me if you need help.
  4. Have integrity. Your word is all you have, take pride in yourself and be honest.
  5. Your cellphone should not be visible on synchronous learning days.

GRADES

A 100-90

B 89-80

C 79-70

D 69-60

F 59--->

Grades will be updated weekly. Please check grades regularly via infinite campus and feel free to ask me any questions that you might have about a particular grade.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Cheating and plagiarism are serious offenses. Please complete your OWN work with integrity. Any assignment that is copied from another student, the internet, or any other source will receive an automatic zero. Depending on the severity of the offense, further disciplinary action may take place.

LATE WORK

Students have FIVE (5) calendar days after an assignment is due to turn in an assignment late.

1st offense	The first time a student turns in an assignment late (within the 5 day limit), there is no penalty.
2nd offense	After that, grading will begin at 75% (students are not guaranteed this grade, but grading will begin at 75% before any deductions to an assignment are made).
3rd offense	After the third incident, I will make parent contact.

If you are absent, it is YOUR responsibility to get yourself caught up. Please refer to the daily agenda slides in our google classroom and/or class webpage to see what you missed.

As per BCPS policy, absent work must be completed within  $n+1$  instructional days to receive full credit (N =numbers of excused days absent).

If you need assistance with your absent work please contact me by following one of the 3 methods listed on page two of the syllabus.
